

TYNDALE ARTS WEEK – EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

Tyndale Arts Week is committed to ensuring equality of opportunity in all areas of its operation as follows:

1. Everyone will be treated equally and with dignity and respect regardless of their disability, gender, sexual orientation, age, financial means, ethnic, political, religious or other opinions.
2. People's feelings and views will be valued.
3. Incidences of harassment or discrimination will be taken seriously and the committee will undertake investigations of any complaints quickly, impartially and thoroughly.
4. Publicising events using a combination of methods to ensure information is available to as wide an audience as possible.
5. Arranging a programme of events that are accessible to a diverse range of people especially.
6. Encouraging and enabling people from underrepresented groups to attend and participate in events and activities
7. Ensuring that the AGM and trustees meetings are accessible to all.

The Committee will be responsible for ensuring that the equal opportunities policy is properly implemented, monitored and reviewed.
